

TOP 50 GROSSING ORDERS BY COUNTRY

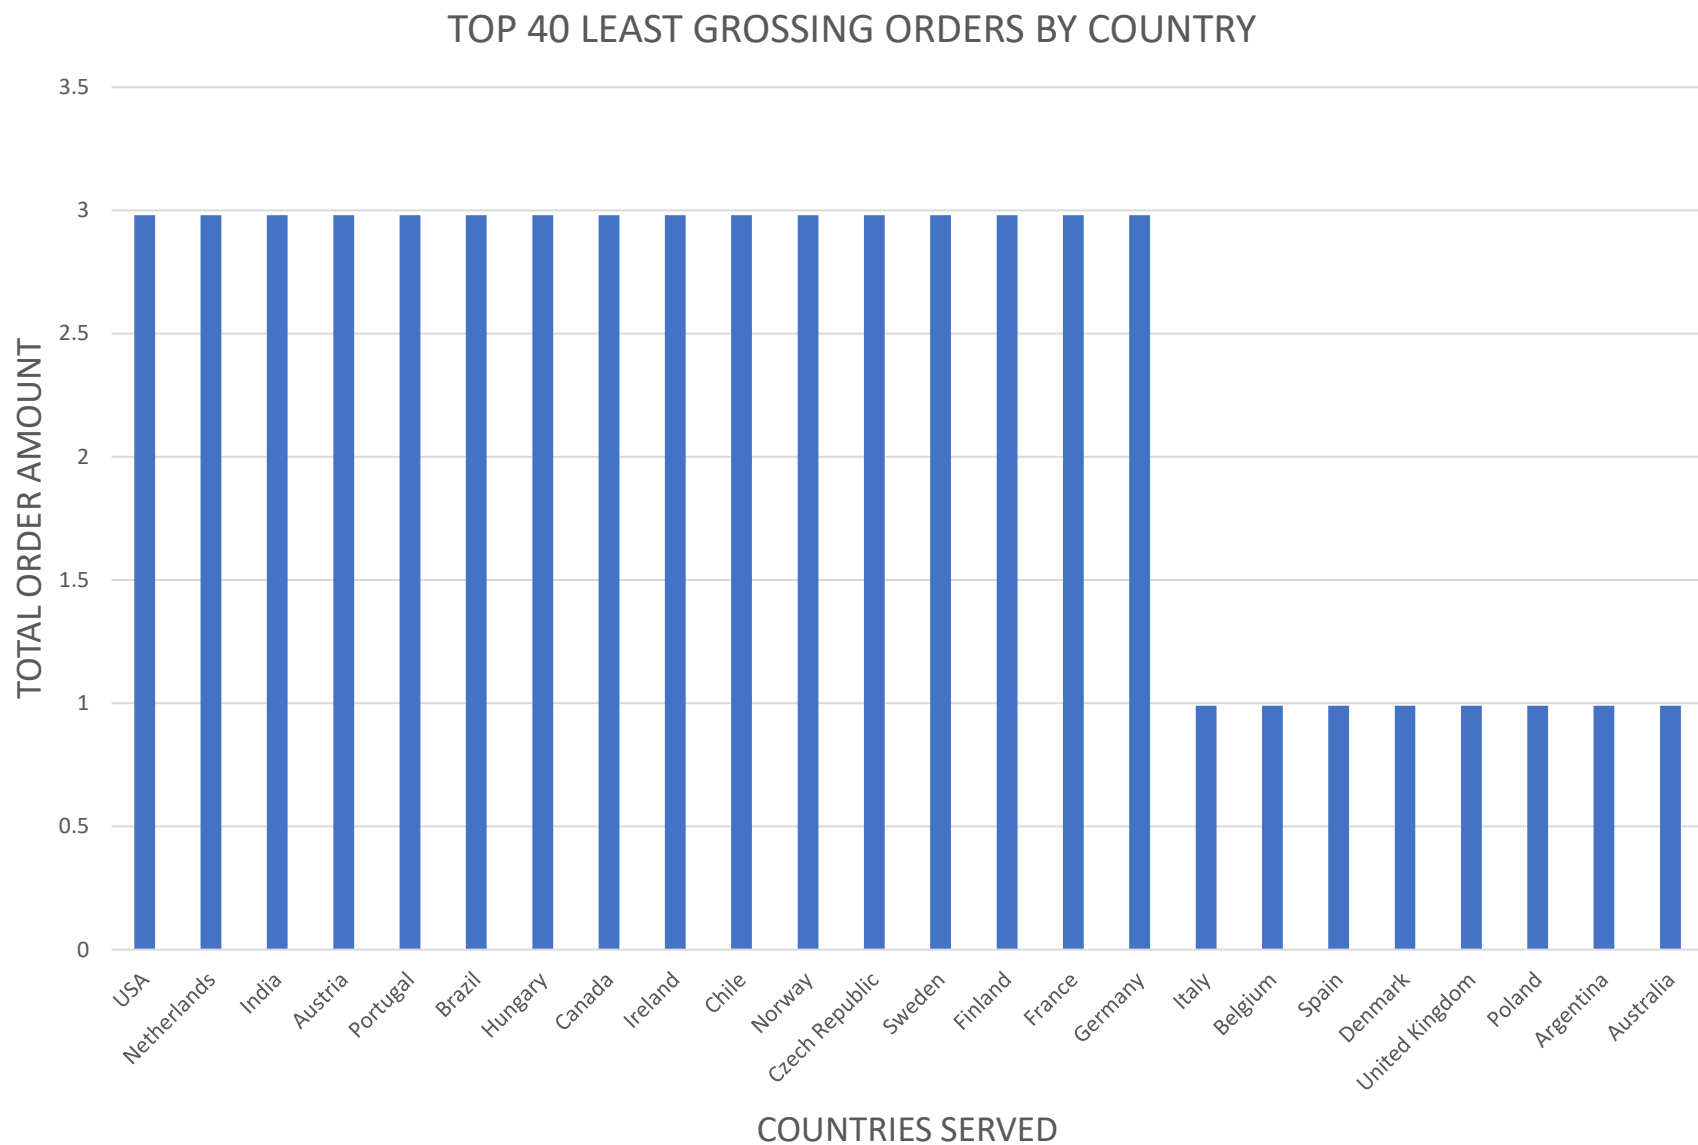

Here is a chart reflecting the countries from where the 50 highest grossing orders come from. As we can see, the United States is the most lucrative country we serve.

Here we have compiled the 10 most expensive albums. The 3 best performing and most expensive albums were soundtrack albums from the tv show “The Office”.

Here we have charted the employees who are supporting the 50 highest grossing customers and the total gross these employees have generated in sales. As we can see, Jane Peacock has grossed the most.

Here we have charted the location of the top 40 least grossing order totals. In reference to chart 1 in this presentation, some of the least grossing orders (shown in this chart) also come from the highest grossing countries (shown in chart 1), such as the US and Canada.
